

6th International Meeting – Barbarian Archaeology

RAIDS AND RITUALS?

Reopening of early medieval graves

H 9:00

Greeting and Introduction to the workshop

Daniel WINGER, Edeltraud ASPÖCK, Caterina GIOSTRA

Reopening Graves in the Early Middle Ages

Alison KLEVNÄS, Stockholm University

Grave robbery? A study on reopened graves from Merovingian times near Regensburg, Bavaria

Stephanie ZINTL, Bayerisches Landesamt für Denkmalpflege

Interacting with the Dead. Grave reopening practices in early medieval Gaul

Astrid NOTERMAN, Stockholm University

Grave reopening in Transylvania in the 5th-7th centuries. An overview

Alpar DOBOS, National Museum of Transylvanian History, Cluj-Napoca, Romania

The reopening of graves in 6th century cemeteries in Austria

Edeltraud ASPÖCK, Österreichische Akademie der Wissenschaften - Wien

H 14.15

Whodunnit? Some remarks on (un)disturbed graves from Szólád

Daniel WINGER, Universität Rostock

First considerations on the reopening of Lombard culture burials in Italy

Caterina GIOSTRA, Caterina VERGINE, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore

Ileana MICARELLI, Cambridge University

The violation of graves in the early medieval legislations

Frank SIEGMUND, University of Münster

Disturbing the Dead in Lombard Laws and Legal Thought, from the Seventh to Twelfth Centuries

Thom GOBBITT, Österreichische Akademie der Wissenschaften - Wien

Reopened graves in early medieval Balkan communities. First considerations about Komani cemetery in Albania

Etleva NALBANI, CNRS/UMR 8167 Orient et Méditerranée - Paris

Jocelyne DESIDERI, University of Geneva

A look beyond the box: Iron Age Grave Manipulations

Melanie AUGSTEIN, University of Leipzig

Plundering and Reusing Tombs in Late Antiquity

Cristina MURER, University of Bern

Conclusions

International meeting

13th January 2023

Platform Zoom, 9.00 am

To participate CLICK HERE

With the collaboration of

Museo
Archeologico
Nazionale
Cividale

Universität
Rostock

ÖAW

AUSTRIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

ARCHEOLOGIA
BARBARICA

UNIVERSITÀ
CATTOLICA
del Sacro Cuore